

The NRD is considering changes to its Well Decommissioning program and updated information will be made available upon finalization of those changes by the NRD Board. If you have questions about the program, please contact the NRD.